TSUNAMI HITS ASIA: OVER 6, 500 DEAD

By Robert Woodhouse Monday, 27 December 2004

The most powerful earthquake in the past 40 years caused a tsunami that crashed ___1___ coastlines across Asia yesterday, ___2___ (kill) more than 6,500 people in Indonesia, India, Thailand, Malaysia, and at least four other countries. Fishermen, tourists, hotels, homes, and cars ___3___ (swept) away by huge waves ___4___ (cause) by the strong earthquake ___5___ reached a magnitude of 9.0. The undersea quake ___6___ (strike) around 7:00 a.m., Sunday off the west coast of Indonesia's Sumatra Island. In that area alone, at least 1,870 people were killed.

In Sri Lanka, some 1,600 kilometres west of the quake centre, the number of deaths stood ___7___ 2,498, and one million more ___8___ (affect) by the tsunami, government officials said. Indian officials said as many as 1,900 had been killed along the southern coast. Another 254 ___9___ (find) dead in Thailand and 54 in three other countries. In southern Thailand, 1,900 people were hurt and many more were ___10___ (miss), local officials said. "I was having breakfast with my three children ___11___ water started filling my home. We had to leave everything and run to safety," said Chandra Theeravit, ___12___ local Thai woman.

Thousands of people are still missing, and the number of deaths ___13___ (expect) to grow even ___14___ (high) over the next few days. Foreign aid is being organised for the tsunami-hit countries. However, dangerous conditions and damaged roads will make ___15___ difficult to deliver food and supplies.
